Jesus' healing presence

In this week's Gospel we hear how Jesus helps St Peter's mother-in-law who was very unwell. There are lots of ways that we can help Jesus with his healing mission today. It's up to us to look out for and help, our friends, our family, our neighbour. Healing of ten starts with just a little patience and kindness.

Daily Report Card

(If you are working at home)

	How I feel about my work today	Why I feel this way
English	😊	I enjoyed my work. I thought of some interesting ideas and I used new phrases.
Maths	😊	I understood what I had to do and I found it challenging but not impossible.
Reading	😊	I think I need a bit more help with this because I found it quite tricky.
RE	😊	It was very interesting and I am proud of my work.
Mandarin	😊	I think I got everything right!
PE	😊	I got very tired after the star jumps. I probably need to practice them a bit more.

Please continue to email this in each day before 2pm

Remote Learning Support

This has been an intensive effort from all concerned through email and phone calls to support you as best we can whilst also offering on site learning for over 40% of our school roll. Going forward there will be some readjustment with this support as we begin to re align what we do in preparation for welcoming more children back and hopefully a full return to school sometime shortly after Half Term break.

Learning together

- in school and at home

Half Term Holiday Provision

For those children who have an entitlement to Free School Meal benefit, please note that we will revert to the emailed Edenred voucher offer. We hope that this is welcome news for those families.

RSE Policy Update

You can find on the school website the RSE (Relationships and Sex Education) Policy and sample resources from the Catholic programme we will be using. Please take some time to look at this information. If you would like to take part in an online Parental Consultation or ask any questions about this programme we will be hosting a Zoom Meeting on Friday February 12th at 10.00am. To receive the link to this meeting please email the school office and request this putting RSE link required in the subject line.
