"My sheep hear my voice and I know them"

In the Fourth week of Easter, Jesus uses the shepherd and his sheep as an example to us. Our shepherd is always worth listening to, following and being with.

Statutory Assessment Tests

On Monday, Year 6 will begin four mornings of National Tests as will all pupils in Year 6 in the country. It's the first year since 2019 and Covid that the tests have taken place. The children and staff have been working remarkably hard this year and wish them every success. Please keep them in your prayers during the week ahead.
